have 2nd wife.

Re: Kinchen Cooley

He was a brother to William Cooley. They came to MS via AL from Darlington Co., SC.
His wife's name, above, was found in a court record in Darlington Co., SC.

Was she possibly related to the Huggins' found in the Waynesboro Cem.??

I have same info. At first, I thought this was the Nelson, son of Harbard. Then I got the Singuefield info.

There could be one possibility — in comparing censuses, there might be a son between child #34 and #5 — William C. / Mary Davis. or #5 + #6.

I'm just not sure about this one either.

Dear Jean:

I think I have worried these Cooley's enough - as usual I have ended up very frustrated at not being able to identify some of them. If only they had been a little more original and not used the same names over, and over, it wouldn't be so difficult, but let's face it, our ancestors believed more in tradition than we do.

I have made notes explaining where I got some of my information - and have tried to explain differences. Several times I have thought one thing, only to find out later that I was wrong, especially after finding someone with better knowledge of these families. Needless to say, there are probably some errors, still, but the results are the efforts of about 15 people I have been in close contact with since I first started this crazy hobby. There are still a lot of unanswered questions but every now and then one little item will turn up. Anyway, for what it is worth, here it is.

Re. Harbard Cooley & Esther Sumrall. What was the published genealogy you referred to?

Re. Allen Cooley. He left Darlington, SC about the same time as the others, only he settled first in Dale Co., AL, then later moved over into Florida. He was divorced by his wife, or at least she left him, but my information is rather sketchy on him. I have written a gentleman who is researching her family name and hopefully he can provide a little more information on this family. Some of the ones from AL may be his descendants, as well as some of those who list FL. Also, the oldest brother in the Cooley bunch, John, Jr., had a son named John, and he later turned up in Dale Co., AL. Some of these also moved on to TX.

In some areas I am just getting started on research - and in some areas I need to go back and begin again - now that I know more than I did at first. It is really a vicious circle.

I did not tackle the Bounds - I have the same info on the Perry County ones. I think they are related to the ones in Wayne/Jasper Co. but how I have never figured out. There are some pretty mixed up stuff on this family. My one resource, and I was going to see her in LA while I was there a few weeks ago, has had a terrible set back with her eyes. She has glaucoma plus cataracts and I was unable to talk to her or see her. Anyway, none of the ones I have info on lived in Wayne Co. - they were primarily in Jasper Co., some were first in Hinds County.

I hope some of this helps. I'll be glad to help with those in Jasper County, if you like. Just let me know.

I'll keep in touch - when I can't find something, or need some kind of help, I may let you know.

Better close - am tierd tonight - work was a pain today. Am going to send for some of your books. Still have to look at the list and see which ones I want.

Sincerely,

#9 - Martha. The more I look at this, the more I think we are all wrong. In figuring ages from the various censuses before 1850, no dau. appeared near the age she would have been - in 1830 ~~1840~~ i.e.. I do think there was a dau born between 1815-1819. See 1830. This may be where Martha goes - but since I have never found anything on her, I guess where she is is as good a place as any.

I have tried for years to get someone to tell me where they got her name - but all I got is SILENCE!

One gent. in So LA collected names on everyone in his area - somewhere he came up with the name of a husband - Alfred Arrington. Never have I found an "Alfred". So much of his stuff was in error - I just discount this as one of his biggest -

William Cooley / Nancy Notes

Found: 1810 Darlington Co., SC Census
1820, 30, 40, 50 Wayne Co MS Censuses

Court Record in SC indicates they left that area after Nov 1818 —

One researcher indicated Wm/Nancy lived in Anson Co, NC ca 1810 (I have not found any concrete evidence of this other than #6, Wm., said he was born in NC.)

Much speculation as to maiden name of Nancy.
Not enough proof positive for me to accept she was a Bounds. In fact, if she was the dau of the particular Bounds some say, then her dau,
Mary Saphronia, would have married her uncle.
I find this hard to believe, since he was a Minister.

#5, Nelson, lived out his lifetime in Clarke Co.

#6, Wm., enumerated in 1840 Wayne Co., afterwards in Jasper.
(this is one of the families Mary Collins Landin got all mixed up in her book)

#7, Daniel, died before his Mother, Nancy.

#9, Martha — this I can't verify. Have never found anything on her, but accept others saying she was a dau.

FOREWORD

This pamphlet is issued for the purpose of assisting in further research. The information presented is all based on some fact-- wills, deeds, court actions, and census data. However, there are certain to be omissions and errors. Anyone is requested to send such information to the compiler.

Because of the lack of time, this work only goes through the fourth generation. However, the fourth generation was in the period of 1850-1870 and tracing from today back to that period can be accomplished with some diligent research.

This information is the result of the efforts of many researchers. Most of the credit should go to:

- Ray Cooley of Deland, Florida who commissioned Eden Booth to research this family in 1964;
- Tom and Mary Elizabeth Cooley of Mt. Vernon, Illinois, who have spent many hours collecting and organizing data;
- Johnny Andrews of Hartsville, South Carolina who willingly provided much information on the Cooleys in South Carolina, Alabama and Florida, although only an "in-law;" and
- Betty Moreno of Raytown, Missouri, who is the most avid Cooley researcher of all-- may she add generations to this beginning.
- June Cooley, my wife, for enduring this nutty avocation.

Dear Jean,

I am sending a copy of Robert Cooley Bible with all children.

Robert must be born Nov. 21, 1824

1850 census he was 24. So in Nov. he would have been 25. This part of the Bible was blurred.

Mary must have died Dec. 31, 1909.

Brown Family Hist. was also in Bible but was blurred when I copied it!

Dear Mrs Strickland,

Marjorie Baxter said you and your husband have been in poor health. We hope you are better now. My wife and I have a baby on the way, due in January. She is having a hard time and must stay in the bed completely. I do the cooking and whatever else gets done — am getting to where I can knock out a decent meal.

I reread your letter of June 12, 1993, in which you mentioned that John Harvard went to Calcasieu Parish, La., after having been involved in the Copeland gang (who was John Harvard?). The interview with J. C. Andrews also mentions the Copeland gang. Who were the Copelands, and where did they operate?

In your letter of Sept. 29, 1987, you thanked me for information on ~~the~~ Carter Sumrall Cooley as the oldest Confederate mother. The article confirmed, you said, that her son Little Berry did not return from the war.

I have recently gotten copies of some letters written by Cooleys to Texas, mostly by Margaret Ann Butler (wife of Carter's son Moses) to her family. The one dated Feb. 18, 1867, by Moses and Margaret Ann in Jasper Co — states that 5 of Harberd's boys were in the army and Moses,

Cooley

Martin, and Albert you work safe. It goes on to say that Berry died in the war and that his wife was married again. This must be Nancy Busby who remarried Chapman Henderson, as you mentioned.

It also says Nelson died in the war — froze in prison. His widow and child were living in the yard at the father's (Herbert's) old place. Martin spent a whole year in prison in Illinois. Mary Ann — their sister, I think — lost her husband also in Yankee prison and was remarried.

In a letter dated April 5, 1857, Jasper Co., Herbert said, "The wagons have stopped going to Mobile. Our market is in 15 miles of us." I assume he is talking about cotton. Do you have any idea where that new market was?

Did J. C. Andrews's account come from a book on Jones Co. in the war? Is that book still available? Is the book on Jones Co. court records still available? If so, how much are they?

The Mitchell in Andrews's account who was executed as a deserter was Morgan Mitchell, brother to my ancestor Sam.

With the help of others — they do the research, since I have no library — we are bit by bit unraveling the Watters family. We now know for sure that D. E. W.'s wife Dickey was also a Watters, daughter of Elijah

129

Walters and Minnie Price; this comes from family reminiscences. It now seems very probable that my ancestor Dan Walters of Wayne Co. was a brother to Elizabeth Walters, born ca. 1794, who married John Frost.
Thanks so much for your help.

Sincerely,
Wesley Cureton

Dear Mrs. Strickland,

Thank you for your letter and the copies from your book of veterans. I think maybe I will order it, but I have misplaced the announcement. How much is the book?

Would there be such records available for Jasper and Clark Counties?

I'm glad the little article was helpful to you; I hoped it would be.

I'm enclosing some Confederate records sent to me by Betty Moreno; she copied it from information sent to her by Mrs. La Troy Cooley of a town in ^{Lucedale?} SE Mississippi that I can't remember now (her husband is a descendant of Herbert and Esther). They are pretty hard to understand, but it seems to be Nelson Cooley who didn't return from service instead of Berry.

The L. B. Cooley of the 9th Miss. Cavalry seems to be brother to my ancestor Ira (~~the~~ Betty Moreno's ancestor). Another brother was John E., who was in the same regiment as my ancestor Sam Mitchell. Another probable brother was Middleton.

I don't ^{know} if both Herberts on p. 1 are the same, but the one whose residence was Clarke County was probably son of Nelson, another brother of Ira and Berry. If so, he is probably the one who married his first cousin Ellen, daughter of the above Berry ^(L.B.) and his first wife Milly Ann Arrington.

Cooley

My ancestor Ira didn't fight, but his first two sons, Asa and William Arthur, did. I assume the Asa there is this one, although I can't figure out which William or W.A. he might be.

You've probably noticed that Herbert Cooley and family were in both Wayne and Jasper in 1850, but Wayne in 1860. We don't know where they were actually in the process of moving at that time, or if they lived so close to the Jasper line that the census taker accidentally crossed the line.

The founder of the private library at Gulfport spoke on Mississippi research at the H. Worth Genealogical Society recently. I don't remember her name. What she said about early Mississippi history was interesting, but I was disappointed because she didn't really speak much about research.

I'm glad to hear you're getting so much information. I agree it would be better to delay a little in order to have more complete information.

Do you have plans to do anything on Jackson County? I'm descended from Thrays, Havenies, and Turners there, although most of my information came from Four Centuries. Is that information considered pretty reliable? A few have hinted it's not.

Thank you again.

Sincerely,
Wesley M. Curston

Dear Mrs. Stickland,

I recently moved from Houston to Ft. Worth to study at the seminary here.

I went today to the Confederate Research Center at Hill College in Hillsboro, Texas, and found this short but informative article on old Esther Cooley. It has quite a few facts that might be useful in your Wayne County book, if it's not too late.

I got your announcement on the book of Confederate veterans. Does it have Daniel E. M. Walters of Jones County in it? How about any Cooleys? I'm having to be careful with my purchases now, but would be interested in ordering it if it has information I need.

I did get one answer to my inquiry on Walters, but the lady really didn't give me any new information.

I hope the article is helpful, and I'm looking forward to your book. Thank you for your work in our little-researched counties of Southeast Mississippi.

Sincerely,
Wesley M. Cureton

Family Reunion

Last Sunday was an enjoyable day in the home of Mrs. B. C. Cooley in Wayne County, the occasion being a family reunion, celebrating her 67th birthday.

Mr. C. I. Nicholson and family along with others from here were among those enjoying the day with Mrs. Cooley, and as they were on their way there they encountered two deer along the road that were scared of nothing, and trotted along just ahead of the truck for some distance.

The day was spent in singing, and music was furnished by W. H. Lewis on his guitar.

At noon a large dinner was spread, and as the group gathered two songs, "Jesus Hold My Hand" and "Golden Rule" were sung, after which prayer was led by Grandma Cooley and Mrs. Pinkie Hinton. Everyone enjoyed the day, wishing Grandma Cooley many more happy birthdays.

Those enjoying the day with Mrs. Cooley included: Mr. and Mrs. Owen Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bunch and daughter, Agnes, Mr. W. H. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson and daughter, Mary Lily, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Cooley and children, James, Mary Alice, Elizabeth and Jean, Aunt Pinkie Hinton, Mr. and Mrs. Curt Hinton, Barlee Gibson, Wilson Lofton, Zack Brewer, Mr. and Mrs. Fagan Cooley and daughter, Mary Elizabeth, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Cooley and children, Columbus, Albert and Berry Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Nicholson and children, Ernest, Carl, Pat, Quitman, Robert Ford, Louise, and Mildred, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Riley, and Bob J. Jones.

Pascagoula man among seniors exhibiting work at Carey

■ Strives to 'create the impossible'

Special to The Mississippi Press

GULFPORT — The Sarah Gillespie Gallery of William Carey College on the Coast in Gulfport will be holding its 2000 BFA exhibit of graduating seniors.

The exhibit includes works by Louis Cooley of Pascagoula, Elisa O'Neal of Wiggins, Melissa Duncan and William Donelson of Picayune, Ruben Alvarez of Gulfport and Debra Harvey of Biloxi.

A reception honoring the seniors will be held from 7-9 p.m. Tuesday at the gallery. Gallery hours are 1-5 p.m. Monday-Thursday. The exhibit will run through April 5. The gallery will be closed during spring break, from March 6-9.

Cooley calls himself a military brat that was stationed with his family in Washington, Maryland, Texas, Germany, Oklahoma and Mississippi. His artwork is based on scenes and footage of a story that he has written and plans to publish.

"I usually sketch out ideas from my written story trying to visualize the action at hand, hoping to come up with that magic scene."

— Louis Cooley

He said, "I usually sketch out ideas from my written story trying to visualize the action at hand, hoping to come up with that magic scene. I use acrylics, oils and pastels in combination to produce the desired works. My favorite of these is oils. My work is driven by imagination; I strive to create the impossible."

Cooley also attended the University of South Alabama, Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College, Perkinson Campus, and Cameron University in Oklahoma before coming to Carey.

O'Neal's artwork focuses on painting and sculpture, and has won many awards and scholarships for her work.

Duncan's focus also is on sculpture and painting. She paints subjects found in her dreams. "Dreams are very important," she said. "Most people take them for granted. In dreams you learn who you are, your true emotions — you can't hide from the real you in your dreams."

Alvarez has a split concentration in graphic design and sculpture. "I feel my work as I create," he said, "the end result is as meaningless as what everyone else interprets. Life is a dance and the music never stops."

Donelson will be the first student to receive a bachelor of fine arts degree in the college's graphic design program. He was commissioned by Ocean Springs artist and musician, Lisa Mills, to design her first CD, "Blues and Ballads."

Harvey will receive a degree in painting and graphic design. Her works are accomplished in graphite, inks, charcoal, pastels, oil and acrylic paint, watercolors and colored pencil.
